

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Basic Greetings — Practice Worksheet

Instructions: Complete each exercise below. Write your answers clearly in the spaces provided.

1. Fill in the blank with the correct German greeting for good morning: _____

2. Fill in the blank with the correct German greeting for good evening: _____

3. Write the German phrase for goodbye (informal): _____

4. Write the German phrase for how are you? (formal, singular): _____

5. Match each German greeting with its English equivalent by writing the correct letter in the blank.

- |                         |                       |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. ____ Guten Tag       | A. Good night         |
| 2. ____ Gute Nacht      | B. Hello              |
| 3. ____ Hallo           | C. Good day           |
| 4. ____ Tschüss         | D. Goodbye (informal) |
| 5. ____ Auf Wiedersehen | E. Goodbye (formal)   |

6. Fill in the blank: The German phrase for please is .....

---

7. Write the German phrase for thank you: _____

8. Fill in the blank with the correct German greeting for good afternoon: _____

9. Write the German phrase for you're welcome (informal): _____

10. Short answer: What is the difference between Tschüss and Auf Wiedersehen? Write your answer in English. _____

Answer Key

1. Guten Morgen
2. Guten Abend
3. Tschüss
4. Wie geht es Ihnen?
5. 1. C, 2. A, 3. B, 4. D, 5. E
6. Bitte
7. Danke
8. Guten Nachmittag
9. Bitte schön
10. Tschüss is informal and used among friends or family; Auf Wiedersehen is formal and used in more polite or official situations.